

Hellenic Production - Industry Roundtable for Growth, IOBE - Foundation for Economic & Industrial Research and the Industrial and Energy Economy Laboratory of the National Technical University of Athens (NTUA)

have the pleasure of inviting you to the event:

“Opportunities and Challenges for the Greek manufacturing sector in the era of Industry 4.0”

Thursday February 7, 2019 at 17:00

Benaki Museum Amphitheatre, 138 Piraeus Str.

Programme:

17:00 – 17:30: Registration

17:30 – 17:35: Welcome

17:35 – 18:20: Keynote Lecture by Professor Christoph Roser: “History of Manufacturing – Lessons learned from the Past for the Future of Manufacturing” (Q&As will follow)

18:20 – 18:30: Coffee Break

18:30 – 20:30: Discussion on the challenges for the European and Greek manufacturing sector – Participants:

- Gwenolé Gozigou, European Commission, Director, Industrial Transformation and Advanced Value Chains, DG Grow
- Tea Antoniou, CEO ANTOPACK
- Nikos Vettas, Director General IOBE, Professor, Athens University of Economics and Business
- Yiannis Caloghirou, Professor, National Technical University of Athens, Industrial and Energy Economy Laboratory
- Anni Podimata, European Affairs advisor, HELLENIC PRODUCTION
- Dimitris Chanis, CEO HERACLES Group, Member of LafargeHolcim

- Moderator: Sofia Dimtsa, Journalist

A cocktail reception will follow

Local event taking place under “European Industry Week 2019”

RSVP by completing the participation form (LINK) here